The Rev. Dr. F. L. McKee Aids Girl Who Is Robbed of Her Hand Bag.

SWIFT CHASE IN STREET

Young Woman Is on Fourth Avenue Car, when Youth Jumps on Running Board and Robs Her.

An athletic minister, an automobile driver and a detective who happened to rest of John Steele, of No. 366 17th street, Brooklyn, after he had stolen a handbag from a woman passenger on a Fourth avenue car at 4th street

Miss Louise Paderowsky, of No. 18 To reach Miss Paderowsky the youth get past the Rev. Dr. Frank McKee, of No. 97 Lexington who was on the end seat.

Dr. McKee did not realize that man intended to steal the handbag until the girl screamed and the man disappeared from the running board. The thief started to run west in 4th street as the minister leaped from the

A big automobile with several passengers was bowling north along the Bowery at the time and Dr. McKee hailed it. He the situation to the occupants and trythe fleeing man, when Lieutenant Barney horried explanation caused him to leap to the running board of the automobile, and the occupants of the car willingly consented to the chase, taking Dr. Mcof the automobile for the chase.

The chauffeur put on all speed and drove through 4th street after the fleeing thief. As the pursuers drew close behind him, Lleutenant Dietsch shouted at him to stop and threatened to shoot, welcome.

and the heutenant jumped from the run-ning board and captured him.

Steele still had the girl's handbag in his hand, and Dr. McKee and the girl were able to identify it when the de-tective made the arrest. Steele was bundled into the automobile with Miss Pagerowsky and Dr. McKee and taken Paderowsky and Dr. McKee and taken to Police Headquarters.

On the way Dr. McKee quoted several passages of Scripture to the young man on the disadvantages of being a trans-When arraigned Steele said that he was seventeen years old and had no oc-cupation. Miss Paderowsky appeared as complainant against him and he was locked up on a charge of grand larceny.

RAZOR FIGHTER NEAR DEATH Columbia Students Watch Battle

Between Negroes. night shortly before midnight at the cor ner of 116th street and Amsterdam avenue, eposite Columbia College, surrounded by a crowd of more than a thousand persons. among whom were many students. blood when a policeman pounced on them that neither could either offer resistance to arrest or attempt to escape.

They said they were John Jackson, of No. 427 West 117th street, and Bernard Harris, of No. 417 West 118th street. One told the police that the fight was due to an accusuation of lying by the other. ter, receiving wounds on the right arm, right leg, right hand and on the right side of the body. Harris, the victor of the com bat, received only a cut on the right arm.

An ambulance with Dr. Hoenig from J.

Hood Wright Hospital removed the two men to that institution. It was said there that Jackson was in a serious condition.

Harris was removed to the West 125th street police station after his injury was

FRIEND OF DIAZ ARRIVES

Rumor That He Was To Be Arrested for Plot Against Madero Untrue.

Sefor Rosendo Pineda, a close friend of panied by no English and much money. He left Vera Cruz under the assumed name of evacuate Chihuahua City. Cristobal Martinez, and rumors were cur-

He explained that, as he was a close friend Grandes under General Orozco.

of Diaz, he thought it wise to get out of A telegram from Chihuahua After leaving Vera Cruz he announced that he was not Martinez, but Pineda. He was not arrested on arrival.

WRATH AT KIDNAPPING TALE

Italian Grocer Looking for Man Who Started It.

Calegaro Buffa, the Italian grocer and wine dealer at No. 356 Broome street, stood in the plenitude of power in his little bre last night and swore than the next man who said his three-year-old son Sal- feed the insurgents, and civilians are still vatore was kidnapped by the Black Hand "ould be dealt with in no stinted manner He wants the public please to apprehend he fact that he will not be tampered with onger. For him a little byplay by the night he teemed with trenchant im

Tou see that bottle of chianti? Dat's pretty gooda stuff. I give heem to anny fella dat to me can show my kid ees-a probably sailing for Europe some time in kidnannal.

denapped."
If Salvatore has been kidnapped his parcots lack frankness and the police have no record of the rescue of the child.

Charged with Embezzling $14,000-inversity of Minnesota funds. Bren has on Board Ship, but Does Not Land.

APPEARS IN GOOD HEALTH

Havana June 3. The steamship Ypiranga. bearing General Porfirio Diaz, the ex-President of Mexico, was sighted off this port at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon, and passed in beyond Morro Castle less than an hour later, anchoring off the custom house. The Ypiranga was instantly surrounded boats bearing a throng of prominent Cubans and representatives of the foreign he near at hand brought about the ar- legations, who desired to pay their respects to the visitor. General Diaz, his wife and the members of his party were on the bridge as the ship entered the harbor, exchanging greetings with those on the who, however, were unable to flotfilla. board the Ypiranga until the health and customs officers had completed their in-East 32d street, the owner of the bag. spection. Great confusion arose from the premature lowering of the quarantine flag before the doctors had finished. General Diaz was on the bridge when the visitors went aboard. He wore a black suit and a broad Panama hat. He appeared stalwart and of erect carriage, and to be in excellent health. By his side was Señora Diaz, in white, while around him

General Diaz was compelled to decline an of the delicacy of the situation. He added that the ex-President was in good physieal health, and that his condition had been car, with Miss Paderowsky close behind much improved by the fine veyage and the He had decided not to land

The Diaz party remained in the officers' quarters for the greater part of the trip, imes going to the bridge. The general only descended for a brief promenade on the main deck last evening while the engers were dining.

As soon as the ship received her health papers, permission to go aboard was given to the American Minister, John B. Jackson; the Mexican Minister, J. F. Godoy; Senor Pasalodos, the Presidential secretary, representing President Gomez; Chancellor Patterson of the Cuban Foreign Office, Kee and Miss Paderowsky along. But other foreign ministers and representatives a few seconds elapsed between the of the Cuban army and navy and of varistealing of the bag and the manning ous Spanish social and commercial organizations. They were accompanied by scores of women bearing large bouquets and baskets of flowers. The ex-President and his party received the visitors on the bridge, the general being greatly affected by the warmth of his By this time darkness had set but the man did not stop. The automobile overhauled him at Lafayette street and the lieutenant jumped from the runin and the reception was cut short by the the President's eldest daughter to Lieutenant Colonel Coello, the ranking officer of the Cuban navy. Immediately after the was reception the members of the Diaz party retired to their apartments for dinner.

All who saw the general were struck by his vigorous appearance, which was totally

POLICE FIRE ON RIOTERS One Hundred Reported Killed or

night as the result of a riot in that city to-day, according to telephone messages thousand cavalry and three thousand foot received here.

Forty rehels entered the place this morning to await the coming of Madero. The in Mexico City until Thursday, not wishing ing a speech there a mob formed and attacked the jail to release the prisoners. The police fired on the rioters. The rebels rushed to the defence of the local authorities, and, being mistaken by them for a part of the mob, were fired on. Order was not restored until many had been killed and scores injured.

INSURGENT ARMY RESTLESS Clash with Federals Feared at Chihuahua.

Juarez, Mexico, June 3.-With Francisco I. Madero out of immediate reach, the position of the insurgent army in Northern Mexico became perplexing to-day.

Abram Gonzalez, named as provisional governor of Chihuahua, was about to proeed to the capital, when he received word that the Minister of War would not allow him, with armed insurgents, to enter the city by railroad. Unofficial advices were that the government was anxious to avoid ex-President Diaz, arrived here last night bringing the federal and insurgent forces on the Ward liner Morro Castle, accom- together, and Governor Gonzalez will probably have to wait until the federal troops

About five thousand federal troops under rent in this city yesterday that he was to Generals Villar and Rabago are concenbe arrested on arrival here as one of the trated at the capital. Outside the city men who had attempted to assessinate Madedo, the revolutionary leader.

Señor Pineda, speaking through an interpreter, said he had never molested Madero, he explained that as he was a close tried.

A telegram from Chihuahua to-day said that the impatience of the insurgents to enter the city was growing, and that they | were being restrained only by severe measures. Fears were entertained that if they entered the city now they might cause a lash out of revenge for certain acts attributed to the federals in early battles which the insurgents regard as atrocities. Every indication is given that the insur gent leaders are anxious to disarm a large portion of their army, for, although generally the soldiers have been orderly, many depredations continue. It is necessary to LIMANTOUR ON WAY HERE ernoon newspapers that insist he is the lent of a kidnapped son, valued by the lock Hand at $10,000, is a grave, solemn to Leave Mexico.

being compelled to give up supplies in exchange for a "receipt."

Precations against all those who had helped was missing. He flashed, gleamed and fared. He was more than ardent; he was righted. Peering a flutter through the floom of his store, Mr. Buffa pointed to a feet of wine and said:

"You see that hottle of the floor on their way to St. Louis. Thence San Antonio, Tex., June 3.-José Yves noon on their way to St. Louis. Thence the fall. Neither was averse to discussing conditions in Mexico. While denying that they are exiles, they let it be understood that ARREST UNIVERSITY CASHIER at the present time it was best for them to leave Mexico to make sure its progress trusting to the good sense of the new re-Told Story of Hold-Up.

Minneapolis, June 3.—J. D. Bren, who asserted yesterday that he had been held up and robbed by highwaymen, was arrested to-day, charged with embezzling $14,000 of University of Minnesota funds. Bren has been connected.

Mexico City, June 8.-The departure of been connected with the university for tenters and has been cashier of the institution four years. He is being held at Minbolis headquarters.

In a secreted that three men attacked him on the bank of the Minneapolis River, the campus, taking from him a value found for the campus found for the His destination is France.

PREACHER IN AN AUTO HAVANA WELCOMES DIAZ MADERO MEXICO'S HERO YOUTH WITH $5,000 GONE REYNOLDS TALKS VALUES

Triumphal Progress.

CROSSES BORDER AGAIN

Receives Officials and Diplomats Great Crowds Everywhere Cheer Intention Was to Return to Ire. A. R. Schorer Discusses Purchase and Pelt Him with Flowers

Piedras Negras, Mexico, June 3.-Through a colonnade of arches, about which a cheering mass of Mexicans was assem Mexico from the United States to-day on his triumphal journey to Mexico City. blare of trumpets, the shouts of "Viva by a great fleet of tugs, launches and har- Madero!" and continuous handelapping from balconies of houses along the way greeted him and his party. Bouquets rained thick and fast on the Madero automobile, and throughout the procession the bowing and smiling to the throng about

Senor Carranza, the governor of the state of Coahuila; Colonel Garibaldi and Lieutenant Colonel Hayperez, who accompanied

The demonstration began at Eagle Pass Tex, on the arrival of the train early this centre of the international bridge, where the party halted by an arch from which the red, white and green of Mexico was draped. As Madero approached the portiere parted, and a throng of Mexicans, a hand and scores of banners and pendants were revealed to him. Here the party paused and listened to speeches by Madero and Carranza. Madero spoke of the freedom characterized his entrance Mexico and the liberty which he said now prevailed in the republic.

Piedras Negras," signifying the passing of the name Ciudad Porfirio Diaz, as this own was formerly called, and the dawn of lay occurred duced in a flowery speech by one of the him to some place in Pennsylvania. own's youngest orators, Manuel Lopez, who REBELS MARCH ON CAPITAL Eight Thousand to Take Part in Welcoming Madero.

Mexico City, June 3.-Under command of here from Cuer avaca to assist the federals in maintaining order when Madero arrives, but it is said that the troops in the GIRL THWARTS HIGHWAYMAN at variance with the reports that he was greatly shaken and enfeebled. He talked animatedly with Minister Jackson and the ather diplomats, apparently much pleased at the meeting, and expressed regret that it was impossible for him to remain in Havana even for a brief time.

The Ypiranga has a large quantity of freight to discharge, and probably will not resume her voyage until to-morrow aftermoon.

The determination to bring them to the city was reached this morning, after a constitution.

one thousand federals marched south or the Tialpam road to-night to meet the revolutionists. The assumption is that the federals expect to join the visitors and return with them to the capital, but the fact that they include a section of artillery with machine guns and heavier pieces has given rise to the rumor that they purpose to oppose the advance of Asunzolo's men.

the first time. They brought to the authorities a man accused of assassinating a Spaniard. Two days ago the Spanish Minister made representations to the State Department regarding the incident. The department caused orders to be sent to the rebels in control where the crime is alleged to have been committed, and the entry of a squad of the new soldiers to-day

U. P. SCHEDULE CHANGED.

The Union Pacific Railroad announces The new schedule is as fol-Leave Chicago via C. & N. W. and HELPS CATCH THIEF Cubans Give Him an Enthusiastic His Journey Toward Capital a Disappears After Drawing Part Says City Can Buy 40-Acre Tract of Damage Suit Money.

WEARS AN ARTIFICIAL LEG SUM INCLUDES DREAMLAND land with the Money to Live with His Parents.

John Rice O'Neill, a nineteen-year-old Ex-Senator William H. Reynolds, who Irish hoy, with $5,000 cash in his pocket, has behind him, and a general alarm has been estate recently burned over for about $3. sent out by the police to find out if any 000,000. He meant the entire area now covharm befell him.

Broadway, who have been retained by Miss forty acres, of which fifteen or sixteen be-Sarah L. Potter, a daughter of the late longed to his enterprise. The inference, of Bishop Potter, to aid in the search for course, was plain, therefore, that he would O'Neill. The boy is the brother of a maid ask the city $1,500,000 for the land which he victorious chieftain stood in his machine, in the employ of Miss Potter, and ever controls. since he came from Ireland several years ago to seek employment here Miss Potter has taken a kindly interest in his fortunes. According to the attorneys, O'Neill found > finally the Union Railway Company settled with him for $10,000. O'Neill invested most of this money, and after his recovery he sailed to Ireland to visit his mother. He was then persuaded by his relatives that he could easily live in that there was no reason why he should can hold out for a ridiculous price even if overwork himself in America. The idea was attractive to the boy, and he returned to New York to liquidate his investment and take the money back to Ireland. Upon his arrival in this city O'Neill took lodgings at a boarding house in East 89th street. He left there on May 9, and has land to be valued and paid for. not been seen since by any of his friends or relatives. It is said that before his departure from the boarding house he said When Madero reached the municipal son, a lawyer, at No. 35 Liberty street.

When was escorted to a balcony, where the only untoward incident of the was going to see Burton W. Gibnoids has refused.

But A. R. Schorer, secretary of the Parks and Playgrounds Association, doesn't favor and Playgrounds Association, doesn't favor and Playgrounds Association, doesn't favor and Playgrounds Association. where the only untoward incident of the with the Union Railway Company, and condemnation. Mr. Schorer postponed his Madero was being intro-

Inquiries made by Keeran & Moore obor some unexplained reason took occasion tained for them the information from Mr. proposition with a Dreamland official official official (libror that he had seen C'Neill on May 15). It's a big proposition," he said last obber who had separated Church and and that the boy then received $5,000 cash, on his return. State." Madero moved toward Lopez. A which was withdrawn from an investment for the city to acquire the Dreamland ter-dozen hands quickly seized the young man made previously on his behalf, but that had seen the boy. A thorough inquiry failed to disclose that he has returned to Ireland, and the suspicion is growing that Ireland, and the suspicion is growing that he may have met with foul play after offer which Dreamland finally makes showing his money.

man limps, having to use an artificial left Asunzolo, about eight thousand men of leg. He is nineteen or twenty years old. the "army of liberation" are expected to stocky, 5 feet 6 inches in height, weighs arrive at the outskirts of the capital to-morrow. Ostensibly they are being brought blue eyes. When he left his boarding house wore a blue serge suit.

Saves Firm's Money When Attacked, and Identifies Man Arrested.

a man, Miss Rebecca Grossman, employed which we bought was built right in the at No. 629 East 16th street, managed to centre of it. As a matter of fact, the ference between Allrow military head of the revolutionary forces in the south, and President de la Barra Word was sent to Asunzolo, and at 16 o'clock the march to the capital began. They should arrive to-morrow. Instead of careful of a riot in that city according to telephone mersages and the result of a riot in that city rehels entered the place this morno await the coming of Madero. The rewells entered the place this morno await the coming of Madero. The rewell the capital into a the result of a riot in that city a capital into a the result of a riot in that city and the capital will always and three thousand foot to the place this morno await the coming of Madero. The rewells entered the place this morno await the coming of Madero, who is due on Wednesday, the jail to release the prisoners. The rebels in the south, and President de la Barra Word was sent to Asunzolo, and at 16 o'clock the march to the capital began. They should arrive to-morrow. Instead of one great big the capital began. Patrolinan Dielaney, of the East 22d street police scalom, arrived just as the was small parks, instead of one great big the capital began. Patrolinan Dielaney, of the East 22d street police scalom, arrived just as the was made that city and the capital began. The forces are said to number about five thousand cavalry and three thousand foot soldiers.

General Bernardo Reyes will not arrive to the Zocale, and while ranks a speech there a mob formed and attained the continuity of Madero, who is due on Wednesday. It was to exceed the clock of the control of the control of the control of the place this more and the sain parts, instead of one great big the lakeged highwaman to the street.

Patrolman Dielaney, of the East 22d street police scalom, arrived just as the was more and attained and arrested him at the point of a rank and the capital began. The track of the capital began. The proceedings were end and arrested him at the point of a rank and the capital began. The proceedings were end the place this three thousand to the save her handbag, containing $176 of her street only existed on the city's map, and Building Code Committee.

On behalf of the committee of architect and builders which has been conferring with the aldermanic Committee on Buildings as to fireproofing material it was said yesterday the committee had prepared a great deal of data, to be submitted at the final conference early this week.

Building Trades Employers' Association, and Patrolman Murphy knocked at the For the last three days members of the to which most of the committee belong. have been discussing fireproofing at the of so much importance as to take preceof so much importance as to take precedence of negotiations with employes and industrial disputes.

A representative of the committee said vesterday: "On account of contemplated changes in the building code we regard fireproofing as of vital importance. "There should be no discrimination in the tests of the different fireproofing materials. What we want, and the public wants, is to have buildings as nearly absolutely fireproof as possible."

PETITION AGAINST BROKERS.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed against William J. Pullman & leaving the "little mother" only $2 with 200, dealers in stocks and bonds, at No. 15 which to meet the future. Detective Wing which to meet the future. Detective Wing made a hurried excuse to the "little mother" and called up the station nouse for the colors. C. M. & St. P. at $20 p. m., arrive at Comaha $25 a. m., leave $45 a. m., arrive at Comean $25 p. m. leave $245 p. m. arrives at Comean at Comean

NOTABLE OFFERINGS AT THE STORES

For Further Details Consult the Advertisements in To-day's Tribune.

MACY'S, Broadway, between 34th and their semi-annual clearance sale of wom-85th streets, has arranged for this week special values in blouses, women's apparel, dresses, gowns and waists. infants' and children's wear, corsets, robes women's handbags, carpets, mattings, lineleum and linens.

HEARN, West 14th street, in its June sale, which will continue throughout, women's corset covers, petticoats, combinations drawers, nightdresses and princess slips and suits and dresses will be offered at attractive prices. Women's semi-ready hats. corsets, petticoats and waists will be on sale to-morrow at good prices. A number of morning specials will remain on sale until 1 o'clock.

ABRAHAM & STRAUS, Brooklyn, call attention to a sale of women's suits, shoes and undermuslins at extraordinary prices.

STERN BROTHERS, West 23d street have made final reductions in their collect tion of tailor suits and dresses, wraps and streets, will have a clearance sale of womcoats, hats, waists and undergarments at en's suits.

exceptional prices. Colored and black dress silks, parasols, linens and rugs may VANTINE'S, Broadway, between 18th and 19th streets, invites attention to a sale en's tailor made suits, wraps and coats, SIMPSON CRAWFORD COMPANY, SIXED avenue between 19th and 20th streets, feature this week embroideries at moderate and Charles Firestone, secret agents of the JOSEPH P. M'HUGH & CO., No. 9 West 42d street, will have a sale of furniture at

BLOOMINGDALES', Third avenue, between 59th and 60th streets, invite attention to a sale of groceries at reasonable prices. There will also be an overflow

J. M. GIDDING & CO., Fifth avenue a clearance sale of women's and misses' unli between 46th and 47th streets, announce suits, lingerie dresses, waists and skirts.

at Island for $3,000,000.

of Land Between Burned Area and Seaside Park.

disappeared without leaving the least trace the city ought to get the Coney Island real eted as an addition to Seaside Park, and The story of the disappearance was told not only the Dreamland section. The tract, yesterday by Keeran & Moore, of No. 141 he estimated, contained between thirty and "No. I'm not going to put any price on til some one with authority comes along employment as a streetcar conductor with husinesslike to make an offer offhand, have the Union Railway Company shortly after it discussed in the papers and cut and his arrival in this country. Through an trimmed by the public. cheap; I'll say that much. "The whole business for $3,000,000 is hargain all right, let me tell you. Why, before that area was burned the property on it was worth, including the land, $10.

the property." the former Senator said, "un-

600,600. All this talk about the owners try ing to squeeze the city is bosh. Nobod he wants to. The city has only to condemn the property to take it and pay us what it's worth.

"Condemnation would be simple easy; no buildings to appraise, no leases to complicate the situation:

A syndicate of Coney Island amusement promoters has already bid $1,000,000 for Dreamland's real estate, an offer Mr. Rey-for Friday, until yesterday. He examined the burned area, and went over the entire "It's a big proposition," he said last night made previously on his behalf, but that property in the burned tract intervenes between the burned tra

"The alternative presented of condemn-The description of O'Neill as furnished ing the property doesn't count very strongby the attorneys gives as the most dis-tinguishing mark the fact that the young proved unsatisfactory. But the Parks and Haygrounds Association is going to investigate the whole matter very thorough-

Senator Reynolds was asked last night about the closing of West 8th street from Surf avenue to the sea by the city in 1963 "The street," said he, "was never legally opened by either the town of Gravesend or the city of New York. No awards were ever made to the property owners on either side whose land was taken, and no assess ments were ever levied on them for im Because she kept her presence of mind provement. The street was never paved when attacked yesterday in the street by or curbed, and the old Coney Island pier

"LITTLE MOTHER" TO FIVE Police Find Girl of Fourteen a Model Housekeeper. A woman reported to the East 88th street police station last night that there were six destitute children at No. 117 East 88th street. Later, when Detecetive Wing door of the address the woman gave they were greeted by a demure little miss carwas Dora Westerman, fourteen years old, three and one-half years old. Behind, in a frightened group, were Benjamin, twelve years, Edward, ten years, Minnie, eight years, and Alexander, six years oid. All of the children showed evidence of good care, and the flat was found scrupulously clean. Questions from the policemen revealed the fact that the mother was in an insane asylum, and that the children's father, employed by an 'nsurance company, had gone away on June !

street.

According to Dora, her father left her at 2 p. m. on June 1, saying that he would be obliged to be away from town for a few days. Since then she had heard nothing from him. The children were sent to the Children's Society.

STATE MAKES EXCISE RAIDS

Agents Say Campaign Is to Include all Unlicensed Places.

The campaign begun in Albany on Friday against purveyors of liquors who omit to pay $1,200 a year to the State Excise Department for their license spread to this city yesterday when George L. Donnellan legal department of the New York Bureau of the State Excise Department, made two raids and confiscated several thousand dollars' worth of wet goods. Joseph Kustassy, maker of "pure grape juice" in East 67th street, was the first to feel the effect of Excise Commissioner Farley's order. His cellar was raided, and prices. There will also be an overflow budget of Monday and Tuesday sales.

LORD & TAYLOR. Broadway and 20th street, Fifth avenue and 19th street, offer for this week Oriental and domestic rugs and men's furnishings at attractive values.

GREENHUT-SIEGEL COOPER COMPANY; Sixth avenue between 18th and 19th streets, will have a clearance sale of women's suits.

ARNOLD, CONSTABLE & CO., Broadway and 19th street, direct attention to an important sale of foulards and laces at reduced prices.

BONWIT, TELLER & CO., Nos. 54-56-55 West 23d street, advertise for this week a clearance sale of women's and misses' suits, lingerie dresses, waists and skirts. mammoth casks of wine containing 10 per

M. Gidding & Co. 564-566 AND 568 Wifth Avenue. 46 1 AND 47

OFFER, BEGINNING TO-MORROW (MONDAY), IN THEIR

Semi-Annual Clearance

Women's Tailor-made Suits at $29 HERETOFORE, $55 to $75.

Touring and Utility Coats at $25 HERETOFORE, $45 to $65. Of double-face cloths and Scotch Mixtures.

Imported Wraps and Coats at $38 to $185 HERETOFORE, $50 to $350. For Afternoon and Evening

> Chiffon Wraps at $35 HERETOFORE, $50. New shades and combinations.

Linen Dresses at $22.50 HERETOFORE, $35. All shades; trimmed with Irish lace, ruffle fronts and large pearl buttons.

HERETOFORE, $50 to $285. Dainty new styles, effectively trimmed with real lace and hand-embroidery.

French Blouses and Waists at $7.50 VALUES to $16.50. High and low neck; plain and novelty voiles and batistes; in white and with colored hand-embroidery.

Daily Concerts by Franko Orchestra, Restaurant, 8th Fl. St. Years Leaders Of Fashion P & CI SINDSON COUNTY OF CI SIXTH AVE. 19270 20 STREET. NEW YORK

Embroideries at One-Third Under Value

Two Special Lots of 27-inch Batiste Flouncings Handsome Baby Irish and Venise designs, embroidered on beautiful, soft, sheer batiste; 3,000 yards only at these special prices:

LOT 1. Values to $1.25, at, rard 69c

LOT 2. Values to $1.75, at, yard 98c

45-inch Batiste Flouncings
In rich designs of Irish and Venise embroidery. Some are $2.25, some $2.50 values; a limited quantity for Monday, at, $1.48

LOT 1. Values 48c | LOT 2. Values 69c | LOT 3. Values 98c to $1.00, at, yd. 48c | to $1.25, at, yd. 69c | to $1.75, at, yd. 98c

98c | LOT 2, at | $1.45 | LOT 3, at | $1.95 | Values are as high as $3.00 yard.

One great lot of Embroidered Double Edge Bands Galloons and Ribbon Beadings in Baby Irish patterns on fine Swiss and batiste. Some worth 50c, some 75c yd; all at, yd...

Beautiful Skirtings, Children's Dress Embroideries, wide Bandings, Insertions, etc., that range in value up to 50c yard.

..... 10c 15c 19c 25c FOR THIS SALE. te Main Floor. (gr On Sale To-Morrow,)

Dry Cold Air. IMPROVED METHOD.

391 FIFTH AVENUE.

Ninety years' experience in the care of furs.

Telephone 7260 Madison.

JOSEPH P. McHUGH & CO.

This Is the Early Summer Offer of Easy Chairs and Rockers, Cushioned in "Liberty" Fabrics (not to be had elsewhere); a thousand cushion are ready for selection and delivery now.

32 POPULAR MODELS, $6 TO $16. THE FINE CUSHIONS FOR THESE ARE IN

(Sold without chairs at $1.50, $2, $3 & $4 cacb.)

This particular offer is for Manhattan, Brooklyn and Bronx free deliveryto all other points freight or express charges are forward.

Wear; of chiffon, satin, taffeta glace and Crepe Meteor.

French Lingerie Gowns at $38 to $195

964-566-568 Fifth Avenue 46th and 47th Sta.

Thousands of Yards of Finest, Newest

MONDAY will be the greatest day of the entire year in our Embroidery Section. We have 25,000 yards finest Embroideries in this great June Sale and all at 1/3 under regular prices. Those rich Batiste Flouncings that are now so fashionable are a strong feature of this sale.

LOT 1. Values 69c to $1.25, at, yard

St. Gall 27-inch Embroidered Flouncings
3 great lots containing upward of 100 designs in beautiful eyelet, French, Filet and Cluny effects.

Three Grea Lots 45-inch St. Gall Flouncings
Values such as you have never known. Many handsome sample pieces in these lots. Beautiful French designs, rich eyelet and Cluny 150 Sample Pieces of Finest Embroidery Allovers Large variety of those handsome English eyelet and French handwork effects so favored for the fashionable overblouses and Allover Embroidered Dresses. Choice of values to $2.50 yard.

Embroidery Sample Strips

SIMPSON CRAWFORD CO., NEW YORK CITY .-

FUR STORAGE

C. G. Gunther's Sons

(Established 1878. 9 West 42d St., Opposite New Public Library PERMANENT ADDRESS—NO AGENTS, NO BRANCHES.

THE CHAIRS CARRYING SEAT CUSHIONS WITHOUT CHARGE ARE

ABERDEEN LINEN, ARRAS CLOTH, MORRIS CRETONNE, CORDUROY, VELVET AND LEATHER.

PROMPT PURCHASERS WILL SECURE CHOICE PATTERNS & COLORINGS.